

U.S. INDOPACOM STUDENT VOLUNTEER INTERNSHIP

OVERVIEW

The Headquarters United States Indo-Pacific Command (HQUSINDOPACOM) Student Volunteer Fellowship Program (SVIP) allows students to explore career opportunities within a professional work environment while learning about the Department of Defense mission and objectives in the Indo-Pacific region. Students will grow in personal and professional skills through mentoring and developmental activities which encourage engagement with other professionals and students. Benefits include:

- Personal and professional development opportunities within the Department of Defense
- Networking across multiple government agencies (State, Justice, USAID, etc.)
- Engagement with foreign governments including projects involving foreign policy strategies, defense, and security.
- Department of Defense SECRET security clearance for qualified candidates

ELIGIBILITY

Undergraduate (junior or

- senior) or graduate student
- U.S. Citizen
- Minimum 3.0 GPA
- Able to obtain a security clearance
- Available to commit to a 10-week program (40 hrs/week)
- Note: A 16-week program (20 hrs/week) is also available for Hawaii residents only

Contact: Program Coordinator Mr. Kaniela Hughes, kaniela.h.hughes.ctr@us.navy.mil
(808-477-7950)

HOW TO APPLY

Send the following materials to j59.studentinternship.fct@pacom.mil by November 17, 2023:

- Resume
- A Letter of Interest that a) details your areas of interest focused on the Indo-Asia-Pacific region; b) indicates the positions in you are interested (see below for a list of available positions); c) highlights your past experiences (academic, professional, and/or personal); and d) conveys how a USINDOPACOM internship will impact/be valuable to your long-term career goals.
- Recommendations (if applicable)

View the list of available summer positions at <https://tinyurl.com/3zy465vk> or scan the QR code:

DEADLINE: November 17