

JTF-Red Hill Organizational Structure

Legend
 EPA/DOH Sync

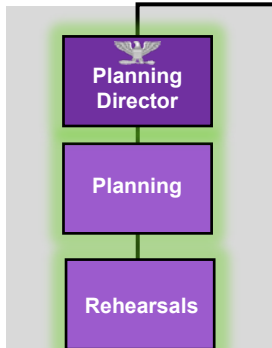

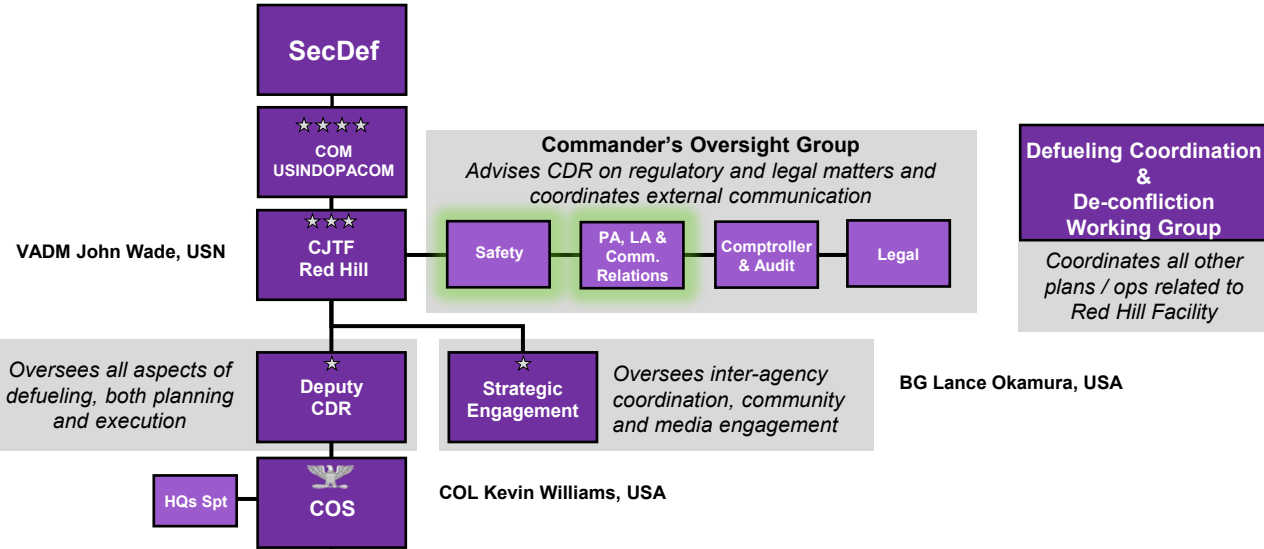

Regulatory Organizations

EPA DOH

Holds JTF to Federal and State standards; provides oversight

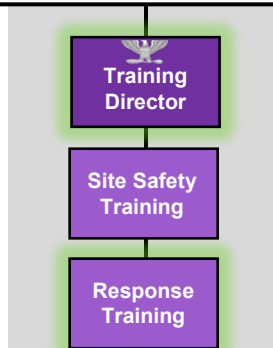

Defueling Information Sharing Forum

Brings local community members, elected representatives and other stakeholders together w/ JTF leadership to discuss defueling and to provide critical community feedback

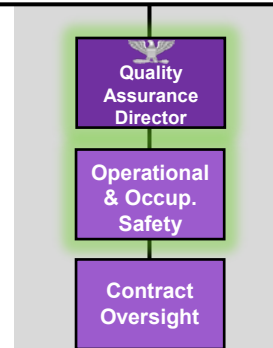

- Conducts continuous planning to deliver options to CJTF-RH to safely and expeditiously defuel RHBFSF.
- Coordinates with all stakeholders for rehearsals prior to next execution milestone.

CAPT Pat Sullivan, USN

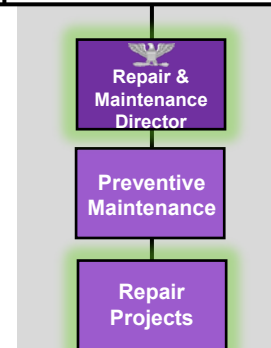

- Coordinates operational and occupational safety training for all JTF-RH personnel working at RHBFSF.
- Coordinates fire/spill response drills for JTF personnel with required emergency management stakeholders.

Col Stacey Taylor, USMC

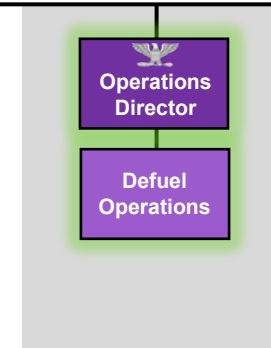

- Assesses all aspects of JTF-RH to ensure optimal quality.
- Inspects facilities and safety equipment to identify/correct potential hazards.
- Audits drafted/awarded contracts to ensure the highest quality of work performance.

COL Letsy Perez-Marsden, USA

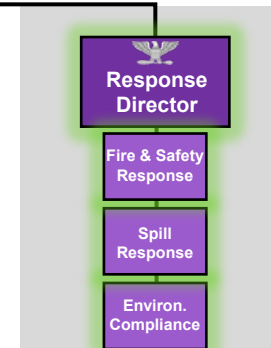

- Conduct Recurring Maint & Minor Repairs (RMMR).
- Coordinate execution and lead oversight for fuel system and facility repair projects.
- Conduct add'l QC/QA thru indep. 3rd party of all repairs.
- Draft add'l contracts, as req'd.

CAPT Steven Stasick, USN

- Conducts pipeline unpacking/repacking to support repairs.
- Controls all tank defueling ops, to include control room/AFHE, fuel movement/transfer, operator maintenance actions, and on-site monitoring of system and infrastructure.

CAPT Shawn Triggs, USN

- Oversees facility fire safety.
- Conducts immediate fire/spill response (w/ Qualified Indiv).
- Coordinates emergency response for CJTF-RH ICW mil and civ authorities.
- Ensures compliance with environment regulatory bodies.

CAPT Tony Pecoraro, USN